LABOUR HISTORY

Historicising the Concept of Europe in Global History

Conference hosted by the University of Vienna (Austria)

Registration period:
17 May to 15 July 2021

WORCK Conference 2 / ELHN Conference 4

Hosted by the University of Vienna (Austria)

Hosts: Juliane Schiel, Lukas Neissl, Teresa Petrik

Registration period: 17 May to 15 July 2021

This conference brings together two major networks for labour and social history in Europe: The “European Labour History Network” (ELHN) and the COST Action “Worlds of Related Coercions in Work” (WORCK). The ELHN Conference 4 (30 August to 1 September 2021) offers a broad and diverse programme of labour-related sessions organised by the ELHN working groups. The WORCK Conference 2 (30 August to 3 September 2021) is dedicated to a reader-based plenary discussion on the concept of Europe in global history and social inequalities in Europe in past and present.

The conference takes place as a hybrid event. Conference participants decide upon registration whether they take part online or on-site. All times correspond to Central European Summer Time (UTC+2).

WORCK members will receive a registration link via email by 17 May 2021. ELHN members and other conference participants are asked to register through the WORCK website.
